

PFD named in the Deloitte Europe Fast 500

DUBLIN, Ireland – December 1, 2005 – Performance Fluid Dynamics (PFD) Limited today announced that it has been listed in the 2005 Deloitte Europe Fast 500, a ranking of the 500 fastest growing technology companies in Europe. Rankings are based on average percentage growth over five years. PFD grew 215% during this period.

PFD's Managing Director, Joe Hannon, credits the company's focus on the pharmaceutical industry with its growth rate. He said: 'We are now a trusted supplier to 9 of the top 10 pharmaceutical companies, who use our DynoChem software to accelerate development and commercialization of new compounds'.

PFD was also listed in the 2005 Ireland Technology Fast 50. Announcing the winners, David O'Flanagan, Partner with Deloitte, Dublin said: 'We are delighted to see the Technology Fast 50 go from strength to strength and tonight's finalists provide us with a great barometer to assess the state of the emerging technology sector in Ireland.'
